

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Time and Place: An Autobiographical Fragment	ix
1 Time and Place	1
2 Herbert Finberg: An Appreciation	25
3 Dispersed and Grouped Settlement in Medieval Cornwall	31
4 The Six New Towns of the Bishops of Winchester, 1200-55	47
5 Isolated and Ruined Churches as Evidence for Population Contraction	77
6 Medieval Inquisitions and the Archaeologist	85
7 Fallowfield, Northumberland: An Early Cartographic Representation of a Deserted Village	89
8 East Layton, Co. Durham, in 1608: Another Early Cartographic Representation of a Deserted Medieval Village Site	93
9 The Economic Individuality of Sutton Coldfield	97
10 Lot Acres	105
11 Ridge and Furrow and the Open Fields	111
12 Commissioners of Enclosure	123
13 The Poll Tax and Census of Sheep, 1549	137
14 Habitation Versus Improvement: The Debate on Enclosure Agreement	159
15 Lay Subsidies and Poll Taxes	189
16 The Common Informer, The Penal Statutes and Economic Regulation	209
17 The Beginning of Retail Tobacco Licences, 1632-41	227

18	The Decree Rolls of Chancery as a Source for Economic History 1547- c. 1700	243
19	The Unprinted Census Returns of 1841, 1851 and 1861 for England and Wales	253
20	Building History from Fire Insurance Records	263
21	Prometheus Insured: The Sun Fire Agency in Leeds During Urbanization, 1716-1826	275
22	Leeds in 1628: A 'Ridinge Observation' from the City of London	293
23	The Making of a Townscape: Richard Paley in the East End of Leeds, 1771-1803	309
24	Prosperity Street and Others: An Essay in Visible Urban History	345
25	The Back-to-Back House in Leeds, 1787-1939	357
	Index	395