

Contents

1. Hume's Place in History	I
2. Moral Psychology	27
3. Strategic Analysis	55
4. Convention	81
5. Political Theory	105
6. Justice As Order	134
7. Utilitarianism	155
8. Value Theory	173
9. Retrospective	198
Bibliography	232
Index	243

Detailed Contents

1. Hume's place in history	I
Naturalism	6
Is and Ought	8
Rationalist Ethics	15
Intuitionist Ethics	16
Virtue Theory	20
Concluding Remarks	23
2. Moral Psychology	27
Utility Pleases	30
Morality Psychologized	32
The Limited Role of Reason	33
Sympathy and Moral Sentiments	36
Mirroring	41
Natural and Artificial Virtues	45
Unintended Consequences	48
Concluding Remarks	51
3. Strategic Analysis	55
Strategic Categories	58
Benevolence	62
Distributive Justice	66
Promise-Keeping	71
Collective Action	76
Coordination	78
Concluding Remarks	79
4. Convention	81
Iterated Coordination	83
The Force of Convention	86
Conventions and Functional Explanation	91
Allegiance to Government	95
Unequal Coordination	100
Concluding Remarks	102
5. Political Theory	105
Power	108

Social Order	111
Government	115
Justificatory Theories of the State	117
Contractarianism	119
Public-Goods Theories	121
Shared-Value Theories	123
Rebellion	126
International Relations	129
Concluding Remarks	132
 6. Justice as Order	 134
Justice an Artificial Virtue	135
Circumstances of Justice	139
Law and a Legal System	142
Property	144
Commerce	149
Politics and Parties	151
Concluding Remarks	153
 7. Utilitarianism	 155
Consequentialism	159
Respect for Persons	160
Rule-Utilitarianism	162
Institutional Utilitarianism	164
Concluding Remarks	171
 8. Value Theory	 173
Political and Economic Exchange	176
Relativity and Ordinalism of Value	178
Mutual Advantage	180
Liberty and Individualism	185
Austrian Social Theory	186
Time Preference	188
Rights	189
Interests and Consumptions	192
Utility	194
Concluding Remarks	195
 9. Retrospective	 198
Alternative Visions of Morality	200
Rationalist Moral Theory	201
Religious Ethics	202
Intuitionism (Innate Moral Knowledge)	204
Identity of Morality and Interest	207

xvi DETAILED CONTENTS

Hume's Forerunners in Political Philosophy	209
Locke	210
Hobbes	212
Major Arguments of Hume	224
Concluding Remarks	228
Bibliography	232
Index	243