

Table of Contents

I. Introduction	9
Core Values and the Expeditionary Mindset: An Introduction Henrik Fürst & Gerhard Kümmel	11
II. Concepts	15
An American Perspective on 21 st Century Expeditionary Mindset and Core Values: A Review of the Literature Patricia M. Shields	17
Challenges of Military Leadership in Contemporary Expeditionary Operations Eyal Ben-Ari	35
Identity, Identity Shifts and Identity Politics: The German Soldier Facing a Pre-/Post-Westphalian World Risk Society, Ambitious National Politics, an Ambivalent Home Society and a Military under Stress Gerhard Kümmel	51
Military Expeditionary Force Ethical Tools: Values, Conceptions, Doctrines and Good Answers Asa Kasher	69
Core Values and Globalized Conflicts Donna Winslow	81
Military Pedagogical Comments on the Expeditionary Mindset – A Finnish Interpretation Juha Mäkinen	113
III. Cases	127
Core Values and Combat Leadership in the Counterinsurgency Environment: The United States Marine Corps Model Paolo Tripodi & Carroll Connelley	129
Core Values and the Expeditionary Mindset: The Case of the Canadian Forces and its Historical Role in Promoting Canadian Core Values Harry Ford	139

Military-Military Cooperation, Regional Integration and Training for Peacekeeping Operations: Brazil and the Southern Cone Kai Michael Kenkel	149
A Norwegian Expeditionary Mindset? Torunn Laugen Haaland	165
Core Values of Danish Expeditionary Soldiers Henning Sørensen	179
Conscription and Expeditionary Forces in Germany Paul Klein	191
From Reticence to Norm? The Evolving Expeditionary Mindset and Role of the Singapore Armed Forces Weichong Ong	199
 IV. Conclusion	 213
Emotions: A Neglected Dimension of the Expeditionary Mindset Henrik Fürst & Gerhard Kümmel	215
 About the Authors	 225