

Contents

Acknowledgements	page ix
Introduction: the psyche in pain	i
1 Historicizing trauma	20
2 Dream and trance: Gaskell's North and South as a "condition-of-consciousness" novel	61
3 Memory and aftermath: from Dickens's "The Signalman" to The Mystery of Edwin Drood	83
4 Overwhelming emotion and psychic shock in George Eliot's The Lifted Veil and Daniel Deronda	121
5 Dissociation and multiple selves: memory, Myers and Stevenson's "shilling shocker"	160
Afterword on afterwards	183
Notes	192
Selected bibliography	226
Index	236