

Contents

List of tables	page xi
Preface and acknowledgments	xiii
Chronology of key events in Hungary, 1956–1990	xvi
List of abbreviations	xxii

Introduction. The mainsprings of political change in Hungary	1
--	---

PART I Systemic change: adaptation and transformation

1 From vanguard to rearguard: the rise and decline of a ruling communist party, 1957–1980	37
2 Economic reforms: from plan to market	82
3 Social change: from latent pluralism to civil society	117

PART II Elite politics: the insurgents and the incumbents

4 Opposition and dissent: ideas, personalities, and strategies	167
5 Party elites in transition: the successor generation	210

PART III From postcommunism to democracy

6 Political succession in the HSWP: issues, personalities, and strategies, 1984–1989	253
7 Negotiated revolution: from the Opposition Roundtable to the National Roundtable	305

8 The road to power: political mobilization, party formation, and free elections in Hungary, 1989–1990	361
9 Democracy in Hungary: toward a new model?	399
Notes	441
Select bibliography	507
Index	528