

Contents

Acknowledgments   vii

Note on Transcription and Transliteration   xi

Maps   xiii

Introduction   3

- 1   The Making of Two Ruthenian Confessions   18
- 2   Ruthenian Parish Life
      Diversity, Poverty, and Increasing Uniate Distinctions   42
- 3   Ruthenian Clergymen
      Shaping Diverging Orthodox and Uniate World Views   65
- 4   New Forms of Opposition and Identity
      The Politicization of the Uniate/Orthodox Conflict in the Eighteenth Century   88
- 5   Dissident Rights, Rebellion, and Repression
      Confessional Violence and the First Partition of Poland, 1762–1773   112
- 6   Inside the Russian Partition
      Catholic Subjects in an Orthodox Empire, 1772–1785   144
- 7   A Continuing Struggle
      Orthodoxy on the Defensive in the Commonwealth, 1773–1793   169
- 8   The Reassertion of Orthodoxy under Russian Rule, 1793–1796   196
- Conclusion   226
- Notes   235
- Works Cited   273
- Index   289