

Introduction: The Study of Photographic Portraiture in Africa

JOHN PEPPER 1

PART ONE. EXCHANGE

1 Portrait Photography: A Visual Currency in the Atlantic Visualscape

JÜRGEN SCHNEIDER 35

2 Lutterodt Family Studios and the Changing Face of Early Portrait Photographs from the Gold Coast

ERIN HANEY 67

3 Yoruba Studio Photographers in Francophone West Africa

ÉRIKA NIMIS 102

4 The Fieldworker and the Portrait: The Social Relations of Photography

ELISABETH L. CAMERON 141

PART TWO. SOCIAL LIVES

5 "A Photograph Steals the Soul": The History of an Idea

Z. S. STROTHER 177

6 The Past in the Present: Photographic Portraiture and the Evocation of Multiple Histories in the Bamum Kingdom of Cameroon

CHRISTRAUD M. GEARY 213

- 7 Mombasa on Display: Photography and the Formation of an Urban Public, from the 1940s Onward
ISOLDE BRIELMAIER 253
- 8 Portrait Photography in a Postcolonial Age: How Beauty Tells the Truth
LIAM BUCKLEY 287

PART THREE. TRADITIONS

- 9 Likeness or Not: Musings on Portraiture in Canonical African Art and Its Implications for African Portrait Photography
JEAN BORGATTI 315
- 10 Àkó-graphy: Ọwọ Portraits
ROWLAND ABÍỌDÚN 341
- 11 Visual Griots: Identity, Aesthetics, and the Social Roles of Portrait Photographers in Mali
CANDACE M. KELLER 363
- 12 The Intermediality of Portraiture in Northern Côte d'Ivoire
TILL FÖRSTER 407
- Contributors 439
- Index 441