

Contents

Preface xv

CHAPTER 1 Enduring Myths and the Land Page 1

ESSAYS

- Mark E. Nackman • The Roots of Texas Exceptionalism 3
Walter L. Buenger and Robert A. Calvert • The Shelf Life of Truth in Texas 8
Benjamin Soskis • The New Texas 12
FURTHER READING 19

CHAPTER 2 Contested Empires: The Native Americans of Texas and European Contact Page 21

DOCUMENTS

1. Cabeza de Vaca Encounters the Indians of Texas, 1535 22
2. Luis de Moscoso Explores East Texas, 1542 25
3. A Caddo War Party Returns Home, 1687 27
4. Spain Reacts to the French Presence in Texas, 1689 29
5. A Franciscan Reports on Prospects for Converting the Caddo Indians, 1691 33

ESSAYS

- John C. Ewers • The Impact of European Diseases on Texas Indians 36
Daniel A. Hickerson • The Caddo Confederacy 40
FURTHER READING 48

CHAPTER 3 The Challenges of Spanish Colonization: Struggles and Accommodation in the Eighteenth Century Page 49

DOCUMENTS

1. The Canary Islanders State Their Grievances to the Viceroy, 1741 51
2. Father Benito Fernández Refutes the Canary Islanders' Complaints, 1741 52

3. Father Gaspar José de Solís Praises the Productivity of Indians at the San José Mission, 1768 54
4. Father Miguel de Molina Describes the Attack on the San Sabá Mission, 1758 56
5. Retrenchment in the Borderlands: The Rubí Dictamen of April 10, 1768 59
6. Father José Francisco López Advocates Secularizing the Missions in San Antonio, 1792 61

ESSAYS

- Gilberto M. Hinojosa • Self-Sufficiency and the San Antonio Missions 64
- Jesús F. de la Teja • The Making of a Tejano Community 73

FURTHER READING 78

CHAPTER 4

Populating Texas During the Late Spanish and Mexican Periods, 1810–1835

Page 79

DOCUMENTS

1. Mexican Revolutionary Bernardo Gutierrez Promises Spoils of War to Army Volunteers at Nacogdoches, 1812 81
2. Stephen F. Austin Seeks Settlers of "Unblemished Character," 1823 82
3. The Coahuila y Texas Immigration Law of 1824 83
4. Caroline von Hinueber Describes the Hardship of Life in Austin's Colony, 1832 88
5. Anglo Leaders of the Fredonian Revolt State Their Reasons for Insurrection Against Mexico, 1826 89
6. Mier y Teran Fears Mexico May Lose Texas, 1830 91
7. Mexico Seeks to Block Anglo-American Immigration: The April 6, 1830 Law 93
8. The San Antonio Ayuntamiento Petitions the Mexican Government for a Liberal Immigration Policy, 1832 94

ESSAYS

- Arnoldo de León • Early Anglo Settlers View Mexicans with Hostility 98
- Gregg Cantrell • Stephen F. Austin: Political and Cultural Mediator 104

FURTHER READING 110

CHAPTER 5

Revolutionary Texas, 1835–1836

Page 111

DOCUMENTS

1. Stephen F. Austin Declares His Support for Independence, 1835 113
2. Map of Texas on the Eve of Revolution, 1835 116
3. Texas Declaration of Independence, March 2, 1836 117
4. Mexico's Secretary of War José María Tornel Rebuts the Texan Reasons for Independence, 1836 119

5. Alamo Commander William B. Travis Appeals for Aid, March 3, 1836 121
6. Mexican Lieutenant Colonel José Enrique de la Peña Describes the Fall of the Alamo, 1836 122
7. Mrs. Dilue Harris Recounts the "Runaway Scrape," March 1836 126
8. Mirabeau B. Lamar Complains of Insubordination in the Ranks of the Texas Army, 1836 128
9. American Abolitionist Benjamin Lundy Sees a Southern Slave Conspiracy, 1836 129

ESSAYS

Eugene Barker • Mexico and Texas: A Collision of Two Cultures 131

David J. Weber • Refighting the Alamo: Mythmaking and the Texas Revolution 133

Paul Lack • Slavery and the Texas Revolution 140

FURTHER READING 145

CHAPTER 6

The Fragile Republic: Building New Communities, 1836–1845

Page 146

DOCUMENTS

1. An Anonymous Visitor Describes Land Speculation in Houston City, 1837 148
2. Mirabeau Lamar Appeals to Texas Nationalism, November 10, 1838 150
3. The Homestead Exemption Act Protects Debtors, January 26, 1839 152
4. Noah Smithwick Negotiates a Treaty with the Comanche Indians, 1838 152
5. Mary Maverick Describes the Council House Fight Between Comanches and San Antonio Residents, 1840 153
6. Juan Seguín Flees to Mexico After the Vásquez Invasion, 1842 156
7. Sam Houston Threatens Reprisals Against Mexico, March 21, 1842 160
8. A Texan Mocks the Houston Administration's Military Record, 1843 161

ESSAYS

William Ransom Hogan • Frontier Individualism and the Texas Republic 162

Sam W. Haynes • Sam Houston and His Antagonists 167

FURTHER READING 173

CHAPTER 7

Texas Joins the Union: Changing Roles for Tejanos and Women in the New State, 1845–1860

Page 175

DOCUMENTS

1. Thomas Jefferson Green Dreams of Empire, 1845 176
2. The United States Annexes Texas, March 1845 179
3. Entrepreneurs Richard King and Mifflin Kenedy Build a Mercantile and Cattle Empire, 1850 180

4. Frederick Law Olmsted Describes Tejano and Anglo Conflicts in the New State, 1859 182
5. Ranchero Juan Nepomuceno Cortina States His Reasons for Revolt Against Texas, 1859 183
6. Lucadia Pease Recovers from Influenza, 1852 186
7. German Pioneer Otilie Fuchs Goeth Recalls the Hardships of Life in Central Texas, 1859 187

ESSAYS

- David Montejano* • Anglos Establish Authority over Mexicans in South Texas 189
- Jane Dysart* • Mexican Women and the Process of Cultural Assimilation 196
- Ann Patton Malone* • Victorian Womanhood on the Texas Frontier 200

FURTHER READING 207

CHAPTER 8 Secession and Civil War, 1861–1865 Page 208

DOCUMENTS

1. Andy J. Anderson, Former Slave, Recalls Life During the Civil War, n.d. 209
2. Lulu Wilson, Former Slave, Describes the Hardships of Slavery, 1938 210
3. Texans State Their Reasons for Secession, 1861 213
4. Sam Houston Opposes Secession, 1861 215
5. Dr. Thomas Barrett Describes the Gainesville Lynching, 1862 218
6. Rebecca Ann Adams Writes to Her Husband About Life on the Home Front, 1863 223

ESSAYS

- Randolph B. Campbell* • An Empire for Slavery 225
- Walter L. Buenger* • The Roots of Texas Secession 230

FURTHER READING 237

CHAPTER 9 Race, Politics, and Reconstruction, 1865–1875 Page 238

DOCUMENTS

1. General Gordon Granger Frees All Texas Slaves, June 19, 1865 240
2. Three Slaves Remember Emancipation (1865), 1937–1938 240

3. Confederate Unionist John H. Reagan Advocates Civil and Political Rights for Blacks, 1865 242
4. Republican Newspaper Editor John L. Haynes Berates the Democrats for Failure to Protect Freedman, 1867 244
5. Freedmen's Bureau Agents Report on the Status of Freedmen, 1867 246
6. An "Unreconstructed" Rebel Laments His Cause (poem), c. 1865 248
7. White Southerner Martin M. Kenney Describes Reconstruction in Austin County, n.d. 249
8. African American Platform Expresses Concerns About the End of Republican Rule, 1873 250

E S S A Y S

- Barry A. Crouch • White Violence in Reconstruction Texas 252
- Carl H. Moneyhon • George T. Ruby and African American Politics During Reconstruction 260

F U R T H E R R E A D I N G 269

C H A P T E R 1 0 Conquering and Populating the Frontiers, 1860–1890

Page 271

D O C U M E N T S

1. Hugh Harmon McElvy, a Georgia Farmer, Reports on the Hardships Farmers Faced on the Texas Frontier, 1871 273
2. Army Wife Emily K. Andrews Gives a Woman's View of the Texas Frontier, 1874 274
3. Will Crittenden, an African American Cowboy, Describes Life on the Range, 1870s–1880s 277
4. Elario Cardova, a Mexican American Cowboy, Remembers Working as a Ranch Hand in South Texas, 1870s–1880s 277
5. Mrs. Ben Miskimon, a Woman on the Range, Recounts Her Experiences Running the Family Cattle Business in Texas, 1874 279
6. Texas Humorist Alexander Sweet Scoffs at the Images in an Eastern "Wild West Show," 1884 280
7. Captain George Wythe Baylor, Texas Ranger, Gives a Stark Account of the Last Battle Between the Apache and the Rangers, 1880 281

E S S A Y S

- Terry G. Jordan • Southern Origins of the Texas Cattle Industry 285
- Arnoldo de León and Kenneth L. Stewart • Power Struggle in the Valley: Mexicans and Anglos in South Texas, 1850–1900 293
- Jacqueline S. Reinier • Women on the Texas Frontier 299

F U R T H E R R E A D I N G 305

CHAPTER 11

Suffrage and Beyond: Texas Women and Reform, 1885–1925

Page 307

DOCUMENTS

1. Texas Pioneer Ann Other Describes Women's Political Interests in the Farmer's Revolt, 1888 309
2. Tyler Women's Club Presents the Virtues of the Club in a Poem from The Club Monthly, 1897 310
3. Newspaper Columnist Pauline Periwinkle Celebrates Transforming Social Clubs into Civic Reform Organizations, 1904 312
4. Mrs. R. W. Simpson, Chairman of the Texas General Federation of Women's Clubs, Presents the Federation's Environmental Agenda, 1914 312
5. Texas Suffrage Organizer Jane Y. McCallum Describes the Impeachment Rally Against James Ferguson, July 28, 1917 314
6. Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, Texas Suffrage Organizer, Writes About Political Implications of Losing the Suffrage Amendment in Congress, 1918 315
7. Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker Explains the Dangers of Fergusonism to the Suffrage Movement, 1918 316
8. Suffragist Minnie Fisher Cunningham Begins Planning Political Activity in Texas in the Postsuffrage Era, 1918 317

ESSAYS

- Marion K. Barthelme • Texas Women and the Farmers' Alliance 319
- Betty T. Chapman • Women's Clubs as Vehicles for Reform in Houston, 1885–1918 328

FURTHER READING 336

CHAPTER 12

Oil, Industrialization, and Urbanization, 1900–1940

Page 337

DOCUMENTS

1. The Dallas Morning News Reports a Big Oil Discovery at Spindletop, January 11, 1901 339
2. Oil Workers Al Hamill and Curt Hamill Give Eyewitness Accounts of the Spindletop Gusher, 1901 339
3. The Dallas Morning News Praises Urban Planning for the City of Dallas, 1910 341
4. Boston City Planner Arthur Comey Presents a Plan for the Development of Houston, 1913 342
5. The Houston Post Reports the Mutiny of African American Troops, 1917 344
6. Texans Tell Reporter Edward T. Devine That Some of "the Best People" Belong to the Klan, 1922 346
7. African American Activist Clifford Richardson Assesses the Needs of Black Neighborhoods in Houston, 1928 348
8. Humble Oil Vice President John Suman Relates Prosperity in Houston to the Growth of the Texas Oil Industry, 1940 350

ESSAYS

Bruce Andre Beauboeuf • World War I and Houston's Emergence as an Industrial City 352

Robert B. Fairbanks • Boosterism, Reform, and Planning in Dallas in the 1920s and 1930s 360

FURTHER READING 369

CHAPTER 13

Defining Mexican American Identity in Texas, 1910–1950

Page 371

DOCUMENTS

1. Mexican American Nationalists Call for a Separate Republic in the Southwest, 1915 373
2. Map Showing Where Americans Were Killed in Ethnic Violence in Northern Mexico, Texas, and New Mexico, 1910–1919 374
3. Novelist Lionel G. Garcia Presents the Battle of the Alamo and San Jacinto from a Fictional Twentieth-Century Perspective, 1987 375
4. The League of Latin American Citizens (LULAC) States Its Objectives, Goals, and Code, 1932, 1933 376
5. The Chapultepec Club, a Mexican American Women's Club in Houston, Lists Complaints Concerning Treatment of Minorities, 1937 378
6. Emma Tenayuca and Homer Brooks, Officers of the Texas Communist Party, Outline Their Vision for Mexican Unification, 1939 380
7. Poet Américo Paredes Manzano Laments the Oppression of the Mexico-Texan, 1939 381
8. The Constitution of the American G.I. Forum of Texas Seeks Equal Rights for Mexican Americans in the Post-World War II Era 382

ESSAYS

Mario T. García • LULAC, Mexican American Identity, and Civil Rights 383

Irene Ledesma • Race, Gender, Class, and Image in the Chicana Labor Struggle, 1918–1938 394

FURTHER READING 403

CHAPTER 14

The African American Struggle for Civil Rights in Texas, 1940–1960

Page 405

DOCUMENTS

1. NAACP Attorney Thurgood Marshall Describes Efforts to Challenge the White Primary, 1941 407
2. Smith v. Allwright Declares the White Primary Unconstitutional, April 3, 1944 408

3. Broadside Documents Political Action of African Americans After Defeat of the White Primary, 1948 410
4. The Founding of Texas Southern University Affirms "Separate But Equal" Education, 1947 411
5. The Supreme Court Rules Separate Education Is Unequal in Sweatt v. Painter, April 4, 1950 412
6. An Unidentified Investigator Gathers Intelligence on Desegregation Activities in El Paso, 1955 413
7. White Backlash: The Texas Citizens' Council of Houston Describes Links Between Civil Rights Activities and Communists, 1956 415
8. Liberal State Senator Henry B. Gonzalez Uses the Filibuster to Oppose Anti-Desegregation Bills, 1957 416
9. The Dallas NAACP Organizes Against the Segregationists, 1957 418

E S S A Y S

Merline Pitre • Lulu B. White, the NAACP, and Launching the Fight Against Segregation in Houston 419

Yvonne Davis Freer • Juanita Craft and the Struggle to End Segregation in Dallas, 1945–1955 429

F U R T H E R R E A D I N G 436

C H A P T E R 1 5

The Rise of the Republican Party and the Transformation of Texas Politics, 1960–2000

Page 437

D O C U M E N T S

1. The Sharpstown Stock Scandal Shakes the Texas Democratic Party, 1971 438
2. Charles Deaton Analyzes the Election of Republican Governor William Clements, 1978 443
3. Time Reports the Collapse of the Oil Industry in Texas, 1982 444
4. Newsweek "Laments" the Demise of the Texas Millionaire, 1986 445
5. The Texas Observer Proclaims the Death of the Yellow-Dog Democrat, 1994 446
6. The Houston Chronicle Explains the Political Realignment in Texas, 1994 448
7. The Texas Monthly Assesses the Collapse of the Democratic Party in Texas, 1998 450
8. The Houston Chronicle Explains the Republican Sweep, 1998 453

E S S A Y S

Chandler Davidson • An Anatomy of Right Wing Republicans 455

George N. Green and John J. Kushma • John Tower and the Rise of the Texas Republican Party 463

F U R T H E R R E A D I N G 470