

Contents

Introduction.....	5
I. The process towards the Post-2015 agenda.....	7
II. Post 2015 on the business agenda – key actors and institutions.....	8
1. Business participation in Post-2015 processes.....	8
High Level Panel.....	8
Global Compact.....	8
Sustainable Development Solutions Network.....	9
Open Working Group and High-Level Political Forum.....	9
2. Corporations involved.....	10
3. Other relevant actors.....	11
Business associations.....	12
Philanthropic foundations.....	12
UN institutions.....	14
Governments.....	15
III. Key messages and policy recommendations of business actors in the Post-2015 process.....	17
1. Vision for sustainable development: focus on growth and technology.....	17
2. Emphasis on corporate sustainability as the main vector of sustainable development.....	18
3. Role of governments: creating “enabling environments”.....	18
4. Need for multi-stakeholder governance.....	18
IV. Risks and side-effects of growing corporate influence.....	20
1. Problems with the message.....	20
A self-serving, partial analysis of the issues to address.....	20
Problematic focus on growth.....	21
Business-centric view of development.....	21
Calls for “transformative” change, but no transformative solutions.....	22
Market-based solutions for sustainable development.....	23
Letting corporations off the hook, limiting the role of government.....	24
2. Problems with the governance model.....	24
Lack of transparency and accountability around “multi-stakeholder” processes.....	24
Increased power imbalance between the corporate sector and civil society.....	25
Lobbying power of corporations at the regional, national and local levels is not acknowledged.....	25
A platform for big business	26
Lack of diversity, narrowing of the debate?.....	26
A governance model that negates vested interest and conflicts between stakeholders.....	27

V. Conclusions and recommendations	29
1. Recommendations for the UN and member states	29
Governance and institutional reform	29
Norm and standard setting	30
Operational activities	30
Funding	31
2. Recommendations for civil society and researchers	31
 Bibliography	 32
 Annex: List of corporations and business associations involved in the Global Compact LEAD, the SDSN and consultations around the HLP and the OWG	 35
 List of abbreviations	 39