

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Guide to Key Places and People xiii

Introduction 1

PART 1: Foundations

Chapter 1: Cancer and Contending Forms of Morality 17

Chapter 2: The Evolving Moral World of Langzhong 51

PART 2: Making Sense of Cancer

Chapter 3: Water, Hard Work, and Farm Chemicals:
The Moral Economy of Cancer 91

Chapter 4: Gendered Hardship, Emotions, and the Ambiguity of Blame 117

Chapter 5: Xiguan, Consumption, and Shifting Cancer
Etiologies 144

PART 3: Strategies of Care and Mourning

Chapter 6: Performing Closeness, Negotiating Family
Relations, and the Cost of Cancer 177

Chapter 7: Perceived Efficacy, Social Identities, and the Rejection of Cancer Surgery 200

Chapter 8: Family Relations and Contested Religious Moralties 230

Conclusion 258

Appendix 1: Questionnaire (English Translation) 267

Appendix 2: List of Pesticides Used in Langzhong and
Their Health Effects 269

Notes 273

References 285

Index 313