

CONTENTS

Introduction	9
A GREEK TRAGEDY	13
I The Origin and Background of Greek Tragedy	15
II Aeschylus	19
a) "Persae"	20
b) The Labdacide Trilogy	23
c) The Oresteia	28
III Sophocles	43
a) "Oedipus Rex"	43
b) "Antigone"	55
IV Euripides	71
a) "Medea"	72
b) "Hippolytus"	76
V The Substance of Greek Tragedy	81
a) The Tragic Situation	81
b) The Tragic Character	83
c) The Sense of Greek Tragedy	89
B SHAKESPEAREAN TRAGEDY	93
I Christian Salvation and Tragic Knowledge	95
II Religious Drama and Melodrama - "Tragedies" before Shakespeare	98
III Shakespeare's Tragedies	103
(1) "King Lear"	107
1. Interpretation of the Lear Action	107
2. The Gloucester Action	119
3. The Lear Universe	125
4. Tragic Reconciliation in "King Lear"	129

(2) "Macbeth"	131
1. The Development of Macbeth's Character in the First Act	131
2. Interpretation of the Consequences of Macbeth's Fatal Act	140
3. The Tragic Sense of "Macbeth"	146
(3) "Othello"	151
1. Interpretation of the Play	151
a) The Opening Scenes	151
b) The Development of Othello's Character in the Main Action	156
c) The Tragic Catastrophe	168
2. The Tragic Sense in "Othello"	173
a) Othello's Character and its Relevance to the Tragedy	173
b) Tragic Reconciliation in "Othello"	175
(4) "Romeo and Juliet"	179
1. Interpretation of the Play	180
a) The Prologue and Opening Scenes	180
b) The Main Action	188
2. Situation and Character in "Romeo and Juliet"	200
3. Tragic Reconciliation in "Romeo and Juliet"	207

IV The Substance of Shakespearean Tragedy	209
a) The Tragic Situation in Shakespeare's Plays	210

b) The Tragic Character in Shakespeare' s Plays	211
c) The Sense of Shakespearean Tragedy	219
V Conclusion	226
List of Reference Books	269