

Contents

Illustrations xi

Case studies xii

1 Introduction: History Beyond the Classroom 1

Introduction 2

Background to public history 3

Types of public history 5

Definition of public history 7

A history of public history 9

Public history debates 14

Conclusion 19

2 Museums, Archives, and Heritage Centers 21

Introduction 22

A brief history of museums 23

Museums 27

Working in a museum 32

Archives 34

Heritage and visitor centers 39

Conclusion 43

Routes into jobs in the museums, archives, and heritage sectors 44

3 Methods of Communication in Public History 47

Introduction 48

Exhibitions 48

Audio-visual aids 59

Handling collections 67

Outreach events 68

Knowing your public	69
Quantitative evaluation	69
Qualitative evaluation	70
Conclusion	71

4 Teaching History 73

Introduction	74
Background	74
Pedagogical approaches to teaching history	76
Learning outcomes and lesson plans	79
Evaluation and adaption	84
Schools, history, and historians	86
Changing approaches to teaching	89
Professional historians and educators	94
Education at historical sites	99
Academic historians and education	105
Conclusion	109
Routes into the history education sector	110

5 Community History 113

Introduction: what is community history?	114
The history of community history	115
Methods for community history	121
Community history projects	124
Oral history projects	126
Historical building and architectural surveys	131
Community archaeology excavation	135
Heritage trails	142
Community exhibitions and publications	143
Community archives research	144
Conclusion	145
Routes into community history	146

6 Media History 147

Introduction	148
Background	149
Popular writing	151

Types of popular publications	152
Popular books	154
Radio history	156
Films	160
Television history	165
Types of television	169
Working in and with the media	175
Book proposal	179
Television proposal	181
Conclusion	182
Routes into media history	183

7 Policy, Politics, and History 185

The impact of policy on public history	186
International policy and guidelines	188
International and national charities	191
National and federal policies and guidelines	194
Policies on the movement of objects	199
Indigenous and Native remains	201
Working with local, regional, and state government organizations	205
Heritage Management Plans	206
Planning policies	207
Public history in non-historical government organizations	212
History's impact on policy	215
Conclusion	216
Routes into policy and government history	217

8 Digital Media 219

Introduction	219
The history of digital media	220
The internet	224
Online learning	226
Cybermuseumology and digital networks	227
Crowd-sourced history	228
Social media	232
Employment in the sector	243
Conclusion	244
Routes into digital media	245

9 Conclusion 247

Introduction 247

History in the public domain 248

The benefits of employing history graduates 252

Getting a job 253

The future of public history 256

Conclusion 257

Glossary 261

Notes 265

Bibliography 303

Index 323