

Contents

Abbreviations

1	Introduction	1
2	Classification of indicators in results-based approaches	2
2.1	Indicators at different levels of the results chain	4
2.2	Direct and indirect indicators	5
2.3	Quantitative and qualitative indicators	6
3	Criteria for assessing indicators used to disburse payments	7
3.1	Focus on results	7
3.2	Control	8
3.3	Financial incentives	9
3.4	Measurability and verifiability	11
3.5	Unintended consequences	12
4	Overview of results-based approaches in education	14
4.1	Analysis of the indicators used in five selected programmes	16
4.1.1	World Bank “Big Results Now in Education Program” Tanzania	16
4.1.2	ADB “Education Sector Development Programme” Sri Lanka	22
4.1.3	DFID “Results Based Aid Pilot – Education Sector Programme” Rwanda	27
4.1.4	DFID “Pilot Project of Results Based Aid in the Education Sector” Ethiopia	32
4.1.5	Twaweza “KiuFunza Local Cash on Delivery” Tanzania	37
4.2	Comparison of indicators used in the five selected programmes	40
4.2.1	Focus on results	41
4.2.2	Control	42
4.2.3	Financial incentives	43
4.2.4	Measurability and verifiability	44
4.2.5	Unintended consequences	45
5	Conclusions and recommendations	46
	Bibliography	49