

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xiii
 Views of Globalization, Empire and Asia: An Introduction Gloria Davies and Chris Nyland	 1
1. 'Globalization' after 9/11 and the Iraq War: Implications for Asia and the Pacific Vivienne Wee	17
2. Terrorism as a Global Phenomenon: The Southeast Asian Experience David Wright-Neville	38
3. Globalization and Poverty Vi Meghnad Desai	52
4. The Impact of Globalization on Malaysia Tham Siew-Yean	63
5. (Case Study 1) Globalization and the Indonesian Economy: Unrealized Potential Robert C. Rice and Idris F. Sulaiman	80
6. Globalization and Hindutva : India's Experience with Global Economic and Political Integration Marika Vicziany	92
7. Australian Roadmaps to Globalism: Explaining the Shift from Multilateralism to Imperial Preference Chris Nyland and Russell Smyth	117
8. Globalization: A New Zealand Perspective John Ballingall, Phil Briggs and Joanna Smith	142

9.	Globalization and Japan after the Bubble Ross Mouer	164
10.	Globalization, Late Industrialization and China's Accession to the WTO: A Critical Perspective on Close Integration Gloria Davies and Russell Smyth	185
11.	(Case Study 2) A Glimpse of FDI in China and Related Issues Richard Lee York Wo	214
12.	(Case Study 3) The Movement of People: Interflows between Hong Kong and Mainland China Jane C.Y. Lee	224
	Index	232