

EDITED BY JOY PARR

SUB Göttingen

7

204 981 611

96 A 31337

A Diversity of Women: Ontario, 1945-1980

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO PRESS

Toronto Buffalo London

Contents

CONTRIBUTORS vii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS x

JOY PARR

Introduction 3

MARIANA VALVERDE

Building Anti-Delinquent Communities: Morality, Gender, and Generation in the City 19

VERONICA STRONG-BOAG

'Their Side of the Story': Women's Voices from Ontario Suburbs, 1945-60 46

JOY PARR

Shopping for a Good Stove: A Parable about Gender, Design, and the Market 75

JOAN SANGSTER

Doing Two Jobs: The Wage-Earning Mother, 1945-70 98

FRANCA IACOVETTA

Remaking Their Lives: Women Immigrants, Survivors, and Refugees 135

ESTER REITER

First-Class Workers Don't Want Second-Class Wages: The Lanark Strike in Dunnville 168

vi Contents

E.A. (NORA) CEBOTAREV

From Domesticity to the Public Sphere: Farm Women, 1945–86 200

MARLENE BRANT CASTELLANO and JANICE HILL

First Nations Women: Reclaiming Our Responsibilities 232

NANCY ADAMSON

Feminists, Libbers, Lefties, and Radicals: The Emergence of the Women's Liberation Movement 252

LINDA CARDINAL

Making a Difference: The Theory and Practice of Francophone Women's Groups, 1969–82 281

PICTURE CREDITS 317

INDEX 319