

Environmental Law and Ecological Responsibility

The Concept and Practice of Ecological Self-Organization

Edited by

Gunther Teubner

European University Institute, Florence, Italy and London School of Economics, UK

Lindsay Farmer

Birkbeck College, London, UK

Declan Murphy

Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland

JOHN WILEY & SONS

Chichester • New York • Brisbane • Toronto • Singapore

Contents

About the Contributors	vii
SECTION I INTRODUCTION	1
CHAPTER 1 Ecological Self-Organization Lindsay Farmer and Gunther Teubner	3
SECTION II ECOLOGICAL LIABILITY AND ITS EFFECTS ON SELF-ORGANIZATION	15
CHAPTER 2 The Invisible Cupola: From Causal to Collective Attribution in Ecological Liability Gunther Teubner	17
CHAPTER 3 Hot Spots in the Bubble: Ecological Liability in Markets for Pollution Rights Nathalie Boucquey	49
CHAPTER 4 Enterprise Liability for Environmental Damage: German and European Law Gert Brüggemeier	75
CHAPTER 5 The Ecological Liability of Corporate Groups: Comparing US and European Trends Karl Hofstetter	99
CHAPTER 6 How Law Hides Risk S.C. Smith	117
SECTION III ALTERNATIVE INSTITUTIONS OF ECOLOGICAL SELF-ORGANIZATION	145
CHAPTER 7 Ecological Contracts: Agreements between Polluters and Local Communities Eckard Reh binder	147

CHAPTER 8	“ Verinnerlijking ”: The Limits to a Positive Management Approach Maarten A. Hajer	167
CHAPTER 9	Ecological Covenants: Regulatory Informality in Dutch Waste Reduction Policy Ida Koppen	185
CHAPTER 10	Environmental Performance Review: Self-Regulation in Environmental Law Eric Bregman and Arthur Jacobson	207
CHAPTER 11	Environmental Officers: Management in an Ecological Quality Organization Michael Blecher	237
CHAPTER 12	Environmental Officers: A Viable Concept for Ecological Management? Leonie Breunung and Joachim Nocke	267
SECTION IV	TOWARDS A THEORY OF ECOLOGICAL SELF-ORGANIZATION	297
CHAPTER 13	Coping with Uncertainty: Ecological Risks and the Proceduralization of Environmental Law Karl-Heinz Ladeur	299
CHAPTER 14	A Game without Rules? The Ecological Self-Organization of Firms François Ost	337
CHAPTER 15	Ecological Responsibility without Subject: Differences between Japan and the West Toru Hijikata	363
CHAPTER 16	Constructing the Responsible Organization: Accounting and Environmental Representation Michael Power	369
SECTION V	CONCLUSION	393
CHAPTER 17	Self-Regulation and the Theory of Institutions Philip Selznick	395
Index		403