

Site-Specific Performance

Mike Pearson

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Images	vii
Chronology	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
The Practice of the Book	xiii
Prologue	1
1 Introduction	7
2 Models and Approaches	18
Visitation: going and doing	18
Phenomenology: experiencing	29
Chorography: differentiating	31
Art: modelling	33
Architecture I: occupying	34
Architecture II: programming	38
Mobility: sauntering and loitering	40
Archaeology: marking	42
3 Site: Places	47
Field: Haxey, Lincolnshire	47
Landscape I: Mynydd Bach, Ceredigion	50
Village: Hibaldstow, Lincolnshire	54
House: Marine Terrace, Aberystwyth	57
Chapel: Morriston Tabernacle, Swansea	61
Barn: National History Museum, St Fagans, Cardiff	65
Public building: Aberystwyth railway station	68
Disused building: Ferry Road, Cardiff	72
City: The Hayes, Cardiff	76
Landscape II: Snitterby Carrs, Lincolnshire	80
Site: Exercises	83
Site: Project: Trace:, Cardiff	88
4 Context: Conditions	92
Landscape	92
Cityscape	96
Environment	100

Heritage	104
Place	108
Scenography	112
Materiality	115
Virtuality	119
Connectivity	123
Inaccessibility	126
Context: Exercises	130
Context: Project: FIBUA, SENTA, Sennybridge	135
5 Scenario: Dramaturgy	140
Event: the nature of performance	140
Context: the influence of location	143
Concept: governing ideas	147
Devising: practical applications	150
Space: as organizing principle	155
Time: as organizing principle	159
Sequence: ordering material	162
Stratigraphy: layering material	166
Engagement: performers and site	170
Reception: audience and site	174
Scenario: Exercises	178
Scenario: Project: country hotel	183
6 After Effects	188
Afterlife: pedagogy	188
Afterlife: archive	191
Postscripts	194
Bibliography	195
Index	203