

Contents

Abbreviations

Executive summary	1
1 Introduction	3
2 Theoretical framework and methodology	4
2.1 Theoretical framework	4
2.2 Methodological approach	10
3 Kenya	12
3.1 The Kenyan political process 2002–2013	12
3.2 Ending post-electoral violence in 2008	15
3.3 The adoption of a new constitution in 2010	20
3.4 The elections in 2013	26
3.5 Summary	34
4 Kyrgyzstan	35
4.1 The political process in Kyrgyzstan 2005–2014	35
4.2 Ending and overcoming the interethnic violence of June 2010	38
4.3 The constitutional review process from April to June 2010	47
4.4 The parliamentary elections in October 2010	52
4.5 Summary	57
5 Appraising the hypothesis	57
5.1 Prioritising stability: Mostly negative effects	57
5.2 Cooperation vs. coercion: A mixed picture	59
5.3 Coordination: Mostly positive effects	61
6 Conclusion	64
Bibliography	69
Annex
Annex 1: List of interviewees	79
Annex 2: Results of online survey on critical junctures	81