

Contents

Joke van der Leeuw-Roord Should we remember for the future?	8
Sven Tetzlaff Changing the perspectives: Initiating a dialogue on the commemoration of World War I in Europe	17
Susanne Popp, Miriam Hannig Popular history magazines as a source of intercultural, transnational and media-critical history education	25
Lejla Turčilo The education function of the media as a tool for peace-building: The role of the media in interpreting the past in the Balkans	37
Hasan Hasanović Remembrance and reconciliation on a community level in Srebrenica	49
Valentina Gagić Srebrenica ... women and their contribution to peace-building	58
Violeta Stoycheva, Vanya Ivanova Teaching World War I: How to engage the younger generations through online resources and oral evidence	67
Michael and Rebecca Bilkau Creating a bridge across time: The book of plans, hopes and dreams	78
Nazaret Nazaretyan, Matthias Klingenberg From learning to listen to speaking to one another: Experience from a Turkish-Armenian reconciliation project	86

List of authors	97
Titles of volumes available	102