

Contents

Author's introduction

page ix

PART ONE BACKGROUND TO THE DRAMA

1	British policy in India	3
2	The Muslims	9
3	The problem of the States	22
4	Two great personalities	33

PART TWO HOW THE RIFT WIDENED

5	The Act of 1935	47
6	The failure of federation	51
7	Provincial autonomy	62
8	The war and the Pakistan movement	76
9	The Cripps offer	90
10	Lord Wavell and the Simla conference	111
11	The Cabinet Mission	133
12	Prelude to breakdown	161

PART THREE THE LAST OF THE VICEROYS

13	The new Viceroyalty	189
14	Talks with political leaders	219
15	The problem of the forces	248
16	Disorder in the vexed areas	266
17	A plan for the transfer of power	289
18	The period of dissection	322
19	The accession of the States	356
20	The end of the British Raj	386

PART FOUR THE AFTERMATH

21	Feelings after partition	401
22	Massacre and migration in the north-west	403
23	The last days of Mahatma Gandhi	419
24	The Junagadh affair	427
25	Conflict in Kashmir	441
26	The recalcitrance of Hyderabad	475
27	The integration of the States	494
28	The completion of partition	503
29	Envoi	517

PART FIVE RETROSPECT

30	Alternative to partition?	523
31	Lord Mountbatten appraised	529
	Appendix I	545
	Appendix II	548
	Index	553