

Contents

ABBREVIATIONS	vii
PROLOGUE: the problem	i
1. ENGLAND AND THE WAR FINANCES OF POPE GREGORY XI, 1372-1374	7
2. ENGLISH STRATEGY IN FRANCE, 1372-1374	21
3. THE FIRST REVERSAL OF COURT POLICY IN 1375
i. The new peace talks	33
ii. The expedition to Brittany and the truce of 27 June 1375	37
iii. The Anglo-papal concordat	46
iv. The reasons for the English volte-face	49
v. Anglo-French relations August 1375-April 1376	56
4. THE COURT AND THE ROYAL FINANCES 1372-1375
i. The officers and the court	63
ii. Royal borrowing 1372-5	69
iii. Financial policy and commerce	79
iv. The court and Ireland	90
5. THE GOOD PARLIAMENT
i. The course of the parliament	100
ii. The financial and commercial accusations	108
iii. The accusations about Brittany and St. Sauveur	126
iv. The knights	134
v. The bishops and the ecclesiastical background	139
vi. The lay lords	149
6. THE SECOND REVERSAL OF COURT POLICY IN 1376 to 1377
i. The court and the problem of defence	159
ii. Wycliffe's anti-papal doctrine	165
iii. The Hilary Parliament 1377	178
EPILOGUE: conclusions	195
INDEX	199