

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	v
Abbreviations and Acronyms	vii
Executive Summary.....	ix
1. Introduction, Context, and Approach	1
Context	1
Administrative Capacity Two Years after Accession: Mixed at Best.....	2
Conclusions and Approach.....	5
2. Reviewing Main Trends in Administrative Development.....	7
Public Management Innovations Continue to be Rare and Relatively Isolated.....	7
Structural Flaws Have Reappeared.....	9
3. Comparing Innovative Capacity.....	13
Identifying Comparators.....	13
Defining the Sample	15
Performance Management and Strategic Planning	16
Policy Coordination	23
HRM Systems.....	27
E-Governance Applications	34
4. Replicability and How to Design a Successful Reform
Agenda: A Review of Alternatives	39
Innovations and Factors in Replicability.....	39
5. Conclusions.....	43
References	47

LIST OF TABLES

1.1 Transposition: EU-25 Member States.....	3
1.2 Fiscal Deficit Levels, 1995–2006 (GG deficit, ESA 95% of GDP).....	4
1.3 Service Delivery: Evidence from “Doing Business” and “ACT 3”.....	5

LIST OF FIGURES

1.1	Absorption of EU Structural Funds, September 2005 (In percent for appropriations of 2004–06)	5
3.1	CAF Rating Scale	18
3.2	Performance Management Benchmarked Against the EU Average	21
3.3	Strategic Planning Benchmarked Against the EU Average	24
3.4	The Policy Coordination Scale	24
3.5	Overall Coordination Levels	26
3.6	EI Coordination	26
3.7	Civil Service Legislation	30
3.8	HRM Systems	31
3.9	Politicization	32
3.10	Incentive Systems	34
3.11	Analytical Framework for e-Governance Applications	35

LIST OF BOXES

1	Benchmarking Results	xii
3.1	Performance Management Benchmarks	17
3.2	Strategic Planning Benchmarks	22
3.3	The Main Elements of the HRM Baseline Assessment	28
5.1	Conclusions and Recommendations: Summary	46