

Contents

Introduction: Methodological, Historical, and Conceptual Starting Points	1
SARA HEINÄMAA, MIRJA HARTIMO, AND TIMO MIETTINEN

PART I Transcendental Philosophy

1 Transcendental Life	21
STEVEN CROWELL
2 Categories of Experience and the Transcendental	49
LÁSZLÓ TENGELYI
3 The Transcendental Nature of Experience	61
BERNHARD OBSIEGER

PART II Subjectivity and Intersubjectivity

4 Transcendental Subjectivity and the Human Being	87
HANNE JACOBS
5 Husserl on the Factual and Historical Grounds of the Transcendental Subject	106
SIMO PULKKINEN
6 The Animal and the Infant: From Embodiment and Empathy to Generativity	129
SARA HEINÄMAA
7 Transcendental Social Ontology	147
TIMO MIETTINEN

PART III

Mind and the World

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 8 | The Emergence and Transformation
of Husserl's Concept of World
DAVID CARR | 175 |
| 9 | Phenomenological Sources, Kantian Borders: An Outline of Transcendental Philosophy as Object-Guided Philosophy
SOPHIE LOIDOLT | 190 |
| 10 | The Bodily Feeling of Existence in Phenomenology and Psychoanalysis
JOONA TAIPALE | 218 |
| 11 | William James on Consciousness and the Brain: From
Psycho-Physical Dualism to Transcendental Philosophy
RICHARD COBB-STEVENS | 235 |

PART IV

Beyond Correlation

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 12 | What Is a Transcendental Description?
FREDRIK WESTERLUND | 257 |
| 13 | Transcendental Idealism and Strong Correlationism:
Meillassoux and the End of Heideggerian Finitude
JUSSI BACKMAN | 276 |
| 14 | “Die Kehre spielt im Sachverhalt selbst” : Making Sense of the Twists and Turns in Heidegger's Thought
NIALL KEANE | 295 |
| | Contributors | 315 |
| | Index | 319 |