

Contents

Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction: East Asia in Transition Robert S. Ross	xi
Part I: Economic and Political Change in East Asia
1. Economic Change and the Challenge of Uncertainty Robert Gilpin	3
2. Wealth, Power, and Conflict: East Asia after the Cold War Richard K. Betts	21
Part II: The Great Powers
3. Russia and East Asia after the Cold War Charles E. Ziegler	59
4. China and the Stability of East Asia Robert S. Ross	89
5. Japan as an Asia-Pacific Power Mike M. Mochizuki	124
6. The United States and the Asia-Pacific Region in the Post-Cold War Era Donald S. Zagoria	160
Part III: The Local Powers
7. Korea in the Cold War and Its Aftermath Robert A. Scalapino	183
8. A Giant Treads Carefully: Indonesia's Foreign Policy in the 1990s Michael R. J. Vatikiotis	216

9. From Domino to Dominant: Thailand's Security Policies in the Twenty-First Century Danny Unger	234
10. Vietnam's Foreign Policy in the Post-Soviet Era: Coping with Vulnerability Michael Leifer	267
Part IV: Toward a New Regional Order
11. Political Transformation of Communist States: Impact on the International Order in East Asia Herbert J. Ellison	295
12. International Order and Organization in the Asia-Pacific Region Harry Harding	325
Index	357