

Contents

LIST OF FIGURES	page xi
LIST OF MAPS	xiii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xv
 Introduction	 I
 PART I “Old” World Dimensions and the First Wave	 7
1 Antiquity	9
Egypt	11
Egypt and the South	13
Nubian Ascendancy	14
Africans in the Graeco-Roman World	15
Suggestions for Further Reading	19
2 Africans and the Bible	21
Egypt and Nubia in the Bible	21
Africans and Origins	23
The Queen of Sheba	26
Beta Israel	28
The “Ethiopian” Eunuch and the Call to Christianity	29
Suggestions for Further Reading	31
3 Africans and the Islamic World	32
Golden Lands	33
Pilgrims and Scholars	37
The Enslaved	38
Iberia	43

India and Pakistan	47
Turkey and Iran	48
The Image of the African in the Islamic World	50
Slavery's Aftermath	55
Suggestions for Further Reading	57
 PART II "New" World Realities and Diaspora's Second Wave (to 1945)	 61
4 Transatlantic Moment and the Dawn of Modernity	63
Reconquista	65
Scope of the Trade	67
African Provenance	70
Belly of the Whale	78
Suggestions for Further Reading	87
5 Enslavement	90
Africans in Renaissance Europe	91
Enslavement in the Americas	94
Suggestions for Further Reading	119
6 Asserting the Right to Be	123
Armed Revolt and Autonomous Space	124
Everyday/way Resistance	136
Facing the Enemy	149
Slavery's End?	161
Games People Play	171
Freedom's Tease	174
Another Way	178
Suggestions for Further Reading	181
7 Reconnecting	186
Boats and Trains	187
Organizing Black Labor	193
Faiths New and Renewed	195
Conceptualizing the Solutions	200
Blacks and Science	211
Efflorescence	215
Suggestions for Further Reading	222
 PART III Empire's Dismantling and the Third Wave (since 1945)	 227
8 Movement People	229
Freedom and Fire	231
Developments in the Caribbean, Latin America, and Europe	239

Cultural Innovations	244
Suggestions for Further Reading	258
9 Global Africa in the Era of Mandela and Obama	263
The Fight Against the Portuguese in Africa	266
Dismantling South African Apartheid	270
Further African Migration to the West	275
Suggestions for Further Reading	282
EPILOGUE	284
INDEX	287
COLOR PLATES CAN BE FOUND BETWEEN PAGES 144 AND 145	