

Contents

1. Introduction: War Memorials and Critical Insights into the Human Past	1
Frank Jacob and Kenneth Pearl
2. Exhibiting Ordinary Men and Women – The Representation of National Socialist Perpetrators in Memorials	19
Sarah Kleinmann
3. Black Crosses: La Cambe German War Cemetery, Collective Trauma, and the Remaking of National Identity	39
Christopher Michael Elias
4. Commemorating Stauffenberg and Cavalry Regiment 17: German Veterans' Associations and Memorials in the 1980s and 1990s	55
Martina Metzger
5. Of Heroes, Victims and Enemies: A Comparison of Memorials for the Dead of the Second World War in Yugoslavia/Slovenia and Austria/Styria (1945–1961)	73
Monika Stromberger
6. An Amazing Collection: American GIs and Their Souvenirs of World War II	105
Mark D. Van Ells
7. Loyal Sacrifice Shrines in Republican China, 1912–1949	149
Linh D. Vu
8. Statues, Murals and the National Museum: Mediating the Presence and Absence of Women in Zimbabwean Political Struggles	183
Lorna Lueker Zukas
Contributors	215
Index	219