

Contents

	List of Abbreviations	ix
1	The Sound of Coughing Pigs	I
	Part I USA: From Industrialized Agriculture to Manufactured Hazards, 1949–1967
2	Picking One’s Poisons: Antibiotics and the Public	17
3	Chemical Cornucopia: Antibiotics on the Farm	33
4	Toxic Priorities: Antibiotics and the FDA	54
	Part II Britain: From Rationing to Gluttony, 1945–1969
5	Fusing Concerns: Antibiotics and the British Public	77
6	Bigger, Better, Faster: Antibiotics and British Farming	92
7	Typing Resistance: Antibiotic Regulation in Britain	121
	Part III USA: The Problem of Plenty, 1967–2013
8	Marketplace Environmentalism: Antibiotics, Public Concerns, and Consumer Solutions	143
9	Light-Green Reform: Antibiotic Change on American Farms	163
10	Statutory Defeat: Voluntarism and the Limits of FDA Power	185

Part IV Britain: From Gluttony to Fear, 1970–2018

11	Between Swann Patriotism and BSE: Antibiotics in the Public Sphere	217
12	Persistent Infrastructures: Antibiotic Reform and British Farming	232
13	Swann Song: British Antibiotic Policy After 1969	259
	Conclusion: Antibiotics Unleashed	279
	Acknowledgments	291
	Notes	293
	Bibliography	381
	Index	411