

CONTENTS

1	An Introduction	1
2	Toward a Usable Narrative	53
3	Bolívar in Nineteenth-Century Venezuela	77
4	José Martí and Venezuela: Redressing Bolivarian Doctrine	99
5	From Liberalism to Positivism: Gil Fortoul and Vallenilla Lanz	119
6	Rufino Blanco Fombona: An Exile in Spain	155
7	The Construction of a Patrician Heritage and of Calumny: Vicente Lecuna, La Casa Natal, El Archivo del Libertador, and the Bolivarian Society	171
8	Revising the Bolivarian Machine: A Venezuela Reclaimed by New Intellectuals	201
9	Pan Americanism Above Ground: Bolívar in the United States	227

10	A Rebirth	255
11	Bolívar in the Wake of World War II: Gerhard Masur and Waldo Frank	281
12	The Bolívar-Santander Polemic in Colombia: Germán Arciniegas and Gabriel García Márquez	303
13	Bolívar and Sucre in Ecuador: A Case of Two Assassinations	349
14	Vasconcelos as Screenwriter: Bolívar Remembered	371
15	Bolívar in Bolivia: On Fathers and Creators	397
16	Institution Building in Peru: Ricardo Palma and Víctor Andrés Belaúnde	423
17	Bolívar in the Río de la Plata	443
18	Epilogue	469
	Bibliography	487
	Index	503