

Introduction 1

I. ORIENTATIONS

- 1. Measurement in the Historiography of Science 11
Arnold Thackray
- 2. Science Indicators and Social Indicators 31
Otis Dudley Duncan
- 3. Can Science Be Measured? 39
Gerald Holton
- 4. Toward a Model for Science Indicators 69
Derek de Solla Price
- 5. Models of Scientific Output 97
Manfred Kochen

II. PARTICULARS

- 6. Taking Data Seriously 139
William Kruskal
- 7. Economic Problems of Measuring Returns on Research 171
Zvi Griliches
- 8. Citation Data as Science Indicators 179
Eugene Garfield, Morton V. Malin and Henry Small
- 9. Measuring the Cognitive State of Scientific Disciplines 209
Stephen Cole, Jonathan R. Cole, and Lorraine Dietrich
- 10. Difficulties in Indicator Construction: Notes and Queries 253
Hans Zeisel

III. CONTEXTS

- 11. From Parameters to Portents—and Back 261
John Ziman

12. Political Contexts of Science Indicators	285
Yaron Ezrahi

APPENDIXES

A. Participants in the Conference on Science Indicators	329
B. Notes on Contributors	331
Index of Names	335
Index of Subjects	343