

Off the Derech

Leaving Orthodox Judaism

Edited by
Ezra Cappell and Jessica Lang

SUNY
PRESS

Contents

Introduction	ix
Jessica Lang

PART I: STORIES

My Father, Myself	3
Naomi Seidman
That Long and Winding Road	25
Joshua Halberstam
The Law of Return	41
Morris Dickstein
Tuesdays with Facebook	51
Shulem Deen
Black Hat, Combat Helmet, Thinking Cap: A Mostly Philosophical Memoir	75
Mark Zelcer
How I Lost My Innocence	95
Frieda Vixel
The Trickster Bride	107
Leah Vincent

A Stranger among Familiar Faces: Navigating Complicated Familial Relationships When Leaving the Hasidic Community Frimet Goldberger	123
Uncovered: An Interview with Leah Lax Jessica Lang and Ezra Cappell	139
Excerpts from Uncovered: How I Left Hasidic Life and Finally Came Home (Chapter 18) Leah Lax	153
PART II: ANALYSIS
Between Us: Intimacy in Women's Off-the-Derech Memoirs Jessica Lang	177
The Embodied Process of Haredi Defection Lynn Davidman	197
The Right to Education: Israeli OTD People and Their Struggle for a Fair Chance Moshe Shenfeld	217
In Terms of OTD Shira Schwartz	249
Notes from the Field: Footsteps' Evolution and Approach to Supporting Individuals Leaving the Ultra-Orthodox Community Rachel Berger, Tsivia Finman, and Lani Santo	275
Educational Attainments among Disaffiliates from Ultra-Orthodoxy Miriam R. Moster	295
Representation, Recognition and Institutionalization of a New Community: Reflection on the Mediatization of Former Ultra-Orthodox Jews Jessica Roda	315

The Social Practices and Linguistic Spaces of Shababniks in Brooklyn Gabi Abramac	335
The OTD Struggle: Telling a More Compelling Story Naftuli Moster	361
Off the Derech and into the Wild: Navigating Jewish American Identity Ezra Cappell	379
Contributors	411
Index	419