

Contents

List of Contributors	page vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
Part I Ageing and the Good Life	7
1 Old Age and the Preference for the Future Jeff McMahan	9
2 Ageing and the Temporality of the Good Life Mark Schweda	23
3 Children's Prudential Value Anthony Skelton	38
4 The Ethics of Ageing in Frank Perry's The Swimmer Christopher Hamilton	54
5 Is Ageing Good? Christine Overall	66
6 Mental Health in Old Age Simon Keller	79
7 In Defense of a Semi-Stoical Attitude about Ageing and Death David DeGrazia	92
Part II Ageing and Morality	103
8 Personhood across the Lifespan Søren Holm	105
9 African and East Asian Perspectives on Ageing Thaddeus Metz	118
10 Special Obligations in Long-Standing Friendships Diane Jeske	133

vi	Contents
11	Forgiveness and Ageing Geoffrey Scarre	146
12	Life-Extending Treatments for People with Dementia Nancy S. Jecker	161
13	'Half in Love with Easeful Death': Rational Suicide and the Elderly L. W. Sumner	172
Part III	Ageing and Society	195
14	'To Grandmother's House We Go': On Women, Ethics, and Ageing Samantha Brennan	197
15	Ageing, Unequal Longevities and Intergenerational Justice Axel Gosseries	212
16	Ageing, Justice, and Work: Alternatives to Mandatory Retirement Daniel Halliday and Tom Parr	228
17	Age and Well-Being: Ethical Implications of the U-Curve of Happiness C. S. Wareham	243
18	The Desirability and Morality of Life Extension John K. Davis	257
	References	270
	Index	297