

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	x
‘With Life’s Strange Burdens Much Opprest’: An Introduction to James Smetham	1
1. ‘A Path to Tread’: A Biographical Overview of Smetham’s Life and Career	8
2. ‘Something Rescued from the Form of Oblivion’: Smetham’s Squaring, Monumentalism and Ventilation	31
3. ‘A Puzzling Position in the Universe’: Smetham as Artist and Methodist	45
4. ‘One of the Reliefs of Life’: Smetham the Poet	52
5. ‘Full of Restless Variety’: Smetham’s Impressions of Contemporary Literary and Artistic Worlds	63
6. ‘Friends in Council’: William Davies, John Ruskin, and Frederic J. Shields	72
7. ‘A Niche in the Charmed Circle’: Dante Gabriel Rossetti and the Pre-Raphaelite Circle	81

8. Painted Sermons: Scriptural Subjects and 'Idylls in Oil'	101
9. 'Murder Crowing in the Press': Criticism, Audiences and Studio Life	128
10. 'All Very Serious Art is Dreadfully Dependent upon Money': The Art Market and Patronage (Co-researched and co-written with Catherine Grout)	147
11. 'Glittering Fragments': The Final Years	161
12. 'For Love of Beauty, Not Applause': Smetham in Context	168
Notes	172
Selected Bibliography	186
Index	189