

Table of Contents

1	General Introduction	5
2	General Theoretical Framework: Linking Spatial and Social Mobilities	9
2.1	Spatial Mobility: Towards Sustainable Transport via Inter- and Transdisciplinarity	9
2.2	Spatial Mobility: The Mobility Turn and The New Mobilities Paradigm	14
2.3	Social Mobility	17
2.4	Motility	19
2.5	(Ir-)reversibility, (Im-)mobility, Movement and Moorings	20
2.6	Agency vs. Structure in Practice Theories	21
2.7	Practice Theories & Spatial Mobility	24
2.8	Agency vs. Structure in Social Mobility	26
2.8.1	The (Mobile) Risk Society	27
2.8.2	Individualisation Thesis & Choice Biographies & Mobilities	28
2.8.3	Choice Biographies & Agency vs. Structure in Youth Studies	30
2.9	Temporality and Mobility	33
2.10	Mobility Inclusion, Equity & Justice	35
2.11	Normative Mobilities, Sustainable Mobilities?	40
3	Mobility Cultures: Preface to Paper 1	44
	Paper 1: Sustainable Mobility Cultures and the SDGs: Towards an Interdisciplinary Approach	48
4	General Methodological Approaches to Future Mobilities and Mobile Futures	58
5	Qualitative Content Analysis, Transdisciplinarity & Social Practices: Preface to Paper 2	60
	Paper 2: Cycling to Work and Making Cycling Work	63
6	Chicago School, Grounded Theory & Theoretical Sampling: Preface to Paper 3	79
	Paper 3: Adolescence Locked Down	84
7	General Discussion & Outlook	103
8	On Limitations and Strengths of this Dissertation	112
9	General Concluding Remarks: Making a Case for Re-Coupling Social and Spatial Mobilities ...	113
	References	115