

CONTENTS

1	An “Island Within”: Black Students in the Nineteenth Century	1
2	“We Were Invisible”: Black Students in the Twentieth Century	13
3	“Fighting Back!”: The Making of the New Negro 1828–1919	27
4	“God Speed the Breed”: The New Negro Campus 1919–1936 Movement	37
5	“Strike While the Iron Is Hot”: Early Civil Rights Student Activism	53
6	“Justice Is All We Want”: Black Students and Desegregation	65
7	“March That Won’t Turn Around”: The Making of the Black Campus Movement	77
8	“A New Awareness”: Movement Speakers, Conferences, and Periodicals	91

9	“The Black Student Is Demanding”: The Black Campus Movement, 1965–1968	105
10	“We’re Going to Get What We Want Now”: The Black Campus Movement, 1969–1972	117
11	“A Fly in Buttermilk”: Organizations and Demands	131
12	“A New Sense of My Black Self”: Protests and Support	149
13	“American Version of Storm Troopers”: Opposition and Repression, 1965–1968	157
14	“Black Jim Crow Studies”: Opposition and Repression, 1969–1972	167
15	“Black Students Refuse to Pass the Buck”: The Racial Reconstitution of Higher Education	181
	Epilogue: Backlash and Forward Lashes	201
	Acknowledgements	211
	Abbreviations Used in the Notes	215
	Notes	225
	Index	295