

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: The Contested Nature of Collective Worship	1
2	Adult Anxieties and Generational Blind Spots: Re-centring Childhood in the Sociology of Religion	47
3	On Concepts and Agency: Negotiating Religion and Non-religion in Collective Worship	79
4	The School Family: Rituals of Solidarity, Belonging and Cooperation	111
5	'Doing Good': Children's Ethical Formation Through the Everyday	143
6	On Silence, Candles, Jelly Timers and Enya: Creating Sacred Spaces in Collective Worship	181
7	Conclusion	221
	Bibliography	229
	Index	259