

Limukani Mathe · Gilbert Motsaathebe
Editors

Reconceptualising Multilingualism on African Radio

Language and Identity

palgrave
macmillan

KATALOG

CONTENTS

1	Reconceptualising Multilingualism on African Radio: An Introduction	1
	Limukani Mathe and Gilbert Motsaathebe
2	Accommodating Multilingualism on Religious National Radio: The Case of Radio Islam Malawi	19
	Saizi Salim Katete Kimu, Witness Hassan Mdoka, and Abiodun Salawu
3	Analysing Multilingualism on Lagos FM in Nigeria: A Cultural Proximity Perspective	43
	Funke Omole, Babatunde Adeyeye, and Benjamin Ogundeji
4	Unlocking Multilingualism on Radio in Lesotho	63
	Sekoai Elliot Nkhi, Hlompho Letsie, Tsepiso Claurina Mncina, and Mongali Mofana
5	Beyond Officialised Languages in South Africa: A Case of Thobela FM	87
	Matsobane Lehlogonolo Masuku and Kealeboga Aiseng
6	Interrogating the Interplay of Multilingualism and Multiculturalism on Lupane State University Campus Radio Station	111
	Jennings Joy Chibike, Samuel Anesu Muzhingi, Patience Pikanegore, and Buhlebenkosi Makalisa

7	Code-Switching and Mixing on Star FM Zimbabwe: A Case of The Breakfast Club Show	131
	Clemenciana Mukenge
8	Radio and Music Playtime: A Multilingual Approach in Minority Language Songs	157
	Limukani Mathe
9	The Development and Use of Economic Terminology and Content on Indigenous Radio in the Context of Multilingualism in South Africa	175
	Bandile Ngidi, Naiefa Rashied, Tanyaranzwa Gandanhamo, and Sandile Mbatha
10	Overcoming Ethnic Divisions on Kenyan Radio: A Multilingual Programming Approach	203
	Keziah Wangui Githinji and Limukani Mathe
11	Transnational Identities and Linguistic Citizenship: A Case Study of the Kalanga on BuKalanga Radio	221
	Nomzamo Dube
12	Multilingual Minorities and Cultural Identity Reaffirmation: A Case of the Shangani on Avuxeni FM	243
	Nyasha Cefas Zimuto	