

CONTENTS

6	Editorial Adele Schlombs	118	Treasures of the Study Room
9	Liu Hai Brings Good Fortune Christel and Dieter Schürzeberg	136	Coveted Artworks en Route
10	A Stroke of Luck at Aachener Weiher – On the Future of an Ordered World Helwig Schmidt-Glintzer	138	Chinese Court Painting and Professional Studio Painting from the 17th to 19th Century
24	All Under Heaven A Look at the Exhibition	146	The Art of Supporting The MOK Circle of Friends Michael Oppenhoff
36	The Architecture of MOK Building the Museum and Interview with Kunio Maekawa	148	Earth and Fire Early Pottery from China
44	Line and Volume Sculptures and Statuary from China from the 6th to the 18th Century	152	Power of the Ancestors Ritual Bronzes from China
56	Japanese Avant-Garde Calligraphy Inoue Yūichi and Morita Shiryū	158	Green as Jade, White as Snow Ceramics and Porcelain of the 6th to the 13th Century
64	Written Paintings Ning Fucheng, Zeng Mi, and Zhou Jun	166	China and Europe From Export Porcelain Echoing European Tastes to the Colonial Legacy
72	Ancient Treasures, New Life Buddhist Painting and Calligraphy	174	Urushi Conservation and Restoration of Japanese Lacquer Objects in the Museum for East Asian Art Shunsuke Nakayama
78	Zen and Tea	176	Restorations of Hanging Scrolls
86	In Death as in Life Funerary Pottery from China	178	The Art of Seeing Art Educational Programs at MOK
92	The Legacy of the Courtly Tradition Painting, Printing, and Calligraphy in the Japanese Style	180	On Treasures, Masterpieces, and Foreign Art Exhibitions
104	The Museum's Reference Library	190	Collectors
106	An Expression of Personality Scholar-Painting and Calligraphy from China, Korea, and Japan	191	Benefactors