

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	vii
Transliteration of Hebrew	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Prologue	xiii

PART I · HISTORICAL EVALUATION

1 Introduction: Deployment and tactics in field battles during the Hellenistic period	3
2 The number of combatants on each side	29
3 The armament and tactical composition of the Jewish army	68
4 The ethnic origin and fighting capability of the Seleucid phalanx	90
5 The Seleucid army and mountain warfare	116
6 The military achievements of the Jewish forces	130
7 The battlefields, tactics and leadership of Judas Maccabaeus	138

PART II · ACCOUNTS OF THE BATTLES: INTRODUCTION, TEXT AND COMMENTARY

8 The sources: their date, provenance and characteristics	151
9 The beginning of the Revolt and the battle against Apollonius	194
10 The ambush for Seron at the Beth Horon Ascent	207
11 The ceremony at Mizpah and the Ammaus campaign	219
12 Lysias' first expedition and the raid near Beth Zur	275
13 Lysias' second expedition and the battle at Beth Zacharia	291
14 The negotiations with Nicanor and the encounter at Kafar Salama	347
15 The battle of Adasa and Nicanor Day	359
16 Bacchides' second expedition and the battle of Elasa	376
Conclusion	403

APPENDICES

A The infantry Royal Guard in the Seleucid army	413
B ma'arākā (= formation) and fālank̄s in the Hebrew original of I Maccabees	432
C Was a Seleucid military settlement established in Jerusalem?	438
D The location and history of the Seleucid citadel (the Akra) in Jerusalem	445
E The chronology of Antiochus Epiphanes' expedition to the eastern satrapies	466
F Defensive war on the Sabbath according to the Books of the Maccabees	474
G The ceremony at Mizpah and the chapter on '(the Priest) Anointed for Battle' in the mishnaic tractate Sotah	494
H The Babylonian Jews and the Galatians	500
I The geographical background and chronological sequence of the clashes with Timotheus in the Second Book of the Maccabees	508
J The negotiations between the Jews and the Seleucid authorities in the reigns of Antiochus Epiphanes and Antiochus Eupator	516
K The chronology of Lysias' second expedition	543
L The route of Bacchides' second expedition to Judaea	552

EXCURSUS

I The chronology of John Hyrcanus' first conquests	560
II The Seleucid dates in I Maccabees	562
III Migdal Zur in the MSS of the Scroll of Fasting (s.v. 14 Sivan) and Beth Zur	565
IV The deployment of the armies at Magnesia	567
V The Seleucid 'peltasts' at Thermopylae	569
VI The belief in resurrection and the sectarian affiliation of the authors of the two Books of the Maccabees	571
Plates	573-88
Abbreviations	589
References	592
Indexe locorum	621
General index	651
Index of Greek terms	667
Index of Hebrew words and phrases	670

ILLUSTRATIONS

MAPS

1 Sites of Judas Maccabaeus' battles	xii
2 The Hellenistic world and manpower sources for the Seleucid army	39
3 The mountain plateau and the Gibeon Valley	61
4 The Elasa battlefield	73
5 The Porphyron pass	122
6 The Elburz pass	123
7 The battle arena near Beth Zacharia	125
8 Modein and the western Gophna Hills	195
9 The Beth Horon Ascent	212
10 The Ammaus campaign	222-3
11 The hills of Ammaus and the 'Land of the Plain'	241
12 The Ammaus battle area	269
13 Lysias' first expedition	285
14 The course of Lysias' second expedition	292
15 The Beth Zacharia area	310
16 Proposals for the location of Kafar Salama	357
17 Proposals for the location of Adasa	364
18 Bacchides' expedition and the battle area	383
19 Proposals for the identification of the Akra	446
20 The City of David and the hills of Jerusalem	449
21 Judas Maccabaeus' expeditions in Transjordan	509
22 Proposals for the reconstruction of Bacchides' route	553

TABLES

1 Manpower sources for the Seleucid army	34
2 The Seleucid army and its tactical units	117
3 Chronology of Lysias' first expedition	282
4 Chronology of the battles of Kafar Salama, Adasa and Elasa	375

5 Chronology of Antiochus IV's expedition to the Upper Satrapies	472
6 Chronological background of the four documents in II Maccabees ch. 11	54 ¹
7 Chronology of Lysias' second expedition	55 ¹

DIAGRAMS

1 Main deployment plans of Hellenistic armies	20
2 Principal battle phases	27
3 The battle near Azotos	80
4 The battle of Elasa	114

PLATES

I Metal parts of a sarissa	573
II Cretan phalanx officer and his armour bearer	574
III A coat of armour and other defensive items from Pergamum	575
IV Thracian semi-heavy horseman	576
V Heavy cavalry: xyston and coat of mail	577
VI Cataphract horseman	578
VII Variations on the cataphract style: kontos and corselet	579
VIII A Parthian mounted archer	580
IX Semi-heavy infantry: Pisidian mercenary in the Ptolemaic service	581
X Pisidian signaller in a Ptolemaic semi-heavy unit	582
XI Chain body armour from Pergamum and other items	583
XII Elephant and cub, tower and archers in the bowl from Capena	584
XIII War elephants (a) Silver phalera from the Leningrad Hermitage; (b) a terracotta from Myrina	585-6
XIV War elephants (a) Terracotta from Pompeii; (b) Amulet of elephant and soldiers in an attack; (c) Coin from Campania; (d) 'armoured' elephant	587-8