

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Marilyn D. Button and Jessica A. Sheetz-Nguyen
Part I Women Travellers from the French Revolution to the Napoleonic Era
2	Hamilton's Wife and Nelson's Paramour: Emma, Lady Hamilton in Naples	15
	Cheryl C. D. Hughes
3	Breaking New Ground: The Italian Experience of Elizabeth Cavendish, Second Duchess of Devonshire	45
	Ronald J. Weber
Part II Entrepreneurial Journalists in Emerging Italy
4	'My Country-Women Would Rather Hear': Hester Lynch Piozzi's Regendering of the Grand Tour	79
	Thomas J. Prasch
5	Love, Dirt, and Superstition among the Ruins: Charlotte Eaton's Protestant View of Catholic Rome	113
	Renée Jeanne Schlueter

6	Inventing the Travel Guide: Mariana Starke's Advice for the Independent Traveller Nigel à Brassard	145
7	From 'Flying Visit' to Final Home: Mrs Trollope in Florence Marilyn D. Button	177
Part III Literary Lights in Risorgimento Italy
8	Rambles in Il Bel Paese: Mary Shelley's Anglo-Italian Visioning Renée Jeanne Schlueter	209
9	'I Will Write Plain Words to England': Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Aurora Leigh Lisa Angelella	239
10	Timebound and Timeless in Italy: Why Eliot Chose Florence for Romola Marilyn D. Button	271
Part IV Inspired Social Activists
11	By Art and Spirit: Florence Nightingale's Transformation in Rome Lauren Marie Riepl and Jessica A. Sheetz-Nguyen	305
12	'Victory Is Not Won Simply by the Assertion of Principles': Josephine Butler's Crusade in Italy Jessica A. Sheetz-Nguyen	335
13	Exploring the 'Wild Zone': Amelia B. Edwards Travels the Italian Dolomites Dona M. Cady	369
14	Epilogue Marilyn D. Button and Jessica A. Sheetz-Nguyen	401
	Index	403