

Contents

Preface	ix
Glossary of Diplomatic Terms	xiii
Abbreviations	xvii
List of Figures	xix
Introduction	1
1. Late Medieval and Early Humanist Historiographers: 1280-1517	9
Charters in Medieval Chronicles from Holland and Utrecht: Chronicon Egmundanum , Rijmkroniek van Holland , Wilhelmus
Procurator, Johannes Beke, and Johannes a Leydis	10
Johannes de Beke – Johannes a Leydis – Cornelius Aurelius
The Beginnings of Diplomatic Criticism: Willem Heda	36
Tables	52
Charters or letters used or quoted in Beke, Chronographia – Charters and letters quoted by Leydis in Holland II , as compared with Holland I – Charters in Leydis, Egmond Chronicle I – Charters and letters quoted in Heda's Chronicle
2. City Secretaries, Civil Servants, and Humanist Historians: 1470-1620	65
Local Historiography in the Towns	65
Groningen – Kampen – 's-Hertogenbosch
Administrative Collections of Documents	73
Magistrate's Books

Humanist Historiographers	94
Reinier Snoy – Hadrianus Barlandus, Gerard Geldenhouwer – Lambertus Hortensius – Hadrianus Junius – Janus Dousa – Pieter Bockenberg – Ubbo Emmius – Bernardus Furmerius
3. The Antiquaries: Arnoldus Buchelius and Petrus Scriverius: 1590-1660	153
Arnoldus Buchelius	161
Buchelius as a Collector of Documents – Buchelius' Use of Documents in His Historiographical Work – Buchelius' Use of Documents in His Edition of Beke and Heda – Buchelius' Method of Transcribing Documents – Diplomatic Research by Buchelius
Petrus Scriverius	201
Scriverius' Sources – Scriverius' Editorial Method – Scriverius' Source Criticism and Diplomatic Research
4. Historians, Noblemen, Civil Servants, and Charter Books: 1600-1660	231
Historiographical Works Including Documentary Evidence	231
Marcus Zuerius Boxhorn
Urban Historiographies	239
Jan van Hout, 1602 – Other Urban Chorographies, 1611-c. 1680 – Dirk van Bleyswijck, 1667-c. 1680
Charters in Genealogical and Historiographical Research on Noble Families	268
Editions of Charter Books	283
Local Privilege Books – Pieter Bockenberg – Cornelis Booth – Theodorus Schrevelius – Matthijs van der Houve
5. Historians, Collectors, and Editors: 1644-1780	319
Antiquaries: Collectors, Transcribers, and Editors of Charters for Genealogical and Historical Research	326
Cornelis van Alkemade and Pieter van der Schelling – Matthijs Balen, Ignatius Walvis, Gijsbert Boomkamp – Gerard van Loon – Balthazer Huydecoper – Jan Wagenaar
Editions of Diplomatic Sources: Books of Placards and Charter Books	356
Source Editions Explicitly made for Historical Research – Editions of Town Privileges: Handvesten Haerlem , Pieter van de Wall – Anthony Matthaeus – Frans van Mieris – Pieter Bondam

Adriaan Kluit	405
Kluit's Diplomatic Method – Kluit's Editorial Method
6. Historiography as a Profession: The Nineteenth Century	433
Historiography in the Netherlands: Academia and the Government – History-Antiquities: Historical Societies and Journals – Organisation of the Archives
The Edition of Diplomatic Sources	449
Editions in the Codex Diplomaticus : De Geer and Asch van Wijk – Provincial Charter Books – Charter Book of Holland-Zeeland: Van den Bergh – Charter Books of Gelderland: Van Spaen, Nijhoff, Sloet, and Van Doorninck
Lists of Regests	486
Auxiliary Sciences: Diplomatics	492
Auxiliary Sciences: Palaeography	500
7. The Emancipation of Diplomatics: The Twentieth Century	511
Diplomatic Research in the First Half of the Century: Otto Oppermann	513
Charter Books and Other Charter Editions	537
Charter Book of Utrecht – Charter Book of Holland-Zeeland – Charter Book of Noord-Brabant – Charter Book of Gelderland
Diplomatic Research in the Second Half of the Century	567
Jaap Kruisheer – Eef Dijkhof
Palaeography	576
Palaeographical Teaching Aids and Atlases – Jan Burgers
Conclusion	585
Epilogue: Diplomatics 2.0: The Twenty-First Century	587
Traditional Diplomatics	589
Digital Diplomatics	592
Digital Editions of Charters – Digital Palaeography – Digital Diplomatics
Summary	609
Chapter One – Chapter Two – Chapter Three – Chapter Four – Chapter Five – Chapter Six – Chapter Seven – Epilogue – Finally
Bibliography	653

