

Juhani Rudanko • Paul Rickman

Political Argumentation in Early America

Informal Fallacies in Selected Debates
1789 to 1800

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
2	A Covert Intention and Ad Socordiam in a Congressional Debate in 1789	21
3	Abridging Freedom of Speech: Argumentation for the Sedition Act in 1798	53
4	Arguing for the Logan Act of 1799: Robert Harper's Speech on December 27, 1798	93
5	"A Dagger into Your Social Existence": Argumentation in Two New York Newspapers in the Spring of 1800	119
6	Concluding Observations	147
	Comprehensive Bibliography	161
	Index	173