

CONTENTS

1	A Machinery of Difference: The Gender Histories of the Hunt—Volume Introduction	1
	Laura Beck and Maurice Saß
	Section I Men's Worlds	17
2	Introduction: Men's Worlds? Hunting for Hegemony	19
	Jan D. Kucharzewski
3	Hunting and the Making of the (Hu)man in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight	37
	Marlene Dirschauer
4	Male Bonding, Self-Fashioning, and Virile Creativity: Artists as Hunters in the Nineteenth Century	53
	Maurice Saß
5	Predators and Prey: Entanglements of Masculinity, Power, and Desire in Horst Stern's Novella The Last Hunt	73
	Helga G. Braunbeck

Section II	Women on the Hunt	89
6	Introduction: Women on the Hunt—Observations on Female Features and Social Distinctions Throughout Hunting History Maike Schmidt	91
7	Diana in Amazonian Dress: Fashioning the French Huntress in the Mercure Galant, 1679–1713 Valerio Zanetti	109
8	Sport-Hunting Women in America at the Turn of the Twentieth Century: Agents of Cultural and Political Change Valerie Hedquist	125
9	Killing Like a Girl: The Autobiographical Self-Fashioning of Female Hunters in Contemporary European Literature Laura Beck	145
Section III	Female, Male, and Other Animals	163
10	Introduction: Hunting Animals and Multispecies Entanglements—Counter-Narratives of Agency and Empathy from the Eighteenth Century to the Present Alexandra Böhm	165
11	Hunters as Prey: Animal Poetics in the Myth of Actaeon and Artemis and Its Rewritings Olaf Berwald	185
12	“Wild for to Hold Though I Seem Tame”: The Paradox of the Phallic Female in Falconry Imagery Catherine Bates	197

13	His Hunting Troubles: Contemporary Indigenous Identity and the Prey's Revenge in Stephen Graham Jones's The Only Good Indians	213
	Rebecca L. Jordan
Section IV Hunting Practices		225
14	Introduction: Hunting Animals and Doing Gender in Historical Perspective	227
	Nadir Weber
15	Prince(ss)ly Practice: Gender Roles and Courtly Hunting Activities in the Early Modern Period	243
	Cathérine Annette Ludwig-Ockenfels
16	Constructing Masculinities: Bear Hunting in Tsarist Russia Toward the Fin de Siècle	259
	Timm Schönfelder
17	Melancholic Mourning: The Hunt Breakfast by Gustave Courbet Within the Context of Hunting Culture During the Second Empire in France	275
	Daniela Stöppel
Section V Intersectional Perspectives		297
18	Introduction: Put in the Shadows—On the (In)visibility of Black Women in Hunting	299
	Laura Beck and Maurice Saß
19	Beyond the Hunt: On the Ambiguous Depiction of Hunting Great Apes in the Light of Colonialism	315
	Seda Pesen

20	Au Repos de la Chasse : Hunting Picnics and Transgressive Sociability in Fête Galante Paintings Between Intersectionality and Copresence	333
	Elisabeth Fritz
21	Sovereigns, Breadwinners, and Slayers: The Huntress in Popular Culture	353
	Pia K. Lobodzinski
	Index	369