

Ruins to Riches

The Economic Resurgence of Germany and Japan after 1945

Raymond G. Stokes

University of Glasgow

CONTENTS

List of Charts and Figures page ix

Acknowledgements xi

Introduction i

Part I No Mere Incantation: Rising from the Ashes of Defeat, 1945 to the Early 1950s

- 1 From Foe to Friend: The Allied Military Occupation of Germany and Japan ii
- 2 The Miracle Makers: (Re-)Constructing Cooperative Capitalism 35

Part II Making Miracles, 1950-1973

- 3 Manufacturing Miracles I: Forging Alternative Fordisms 57
- 4 Manufacturing Miracles II: From Humble Craftsmen to World Beaters 77
- 5 Consuming Miracles 94
- 6 Exporting Wonders 112

Part III Sustaining Miracles, 1973-1989

- 7 The Wages of Construction 137
- 8 The Hauntings of the Past 156
- 9 Fragile Strength: Coping with Currency and Oil Crises 183

Part IV Navigating Waves of Globalization, 1990 to the Present

- 10 Managing in Major Markets: Selling and Making
in the United States and China 203
- 11 Coping with the Close of the Cold War 230
- 12 The Shock of the New Century: Three Crises
(and a Near Miss) 254

Conclusion: Deutschland AG and Japan Inc. – Lessons
and Limits 273

Notes 285

Index 318

CHARTS AND FIGURES

Chart

- 5.1 Per capita GDP in Germany, Japan, the United Kingdom, and the United States, 1920–1980 page 97

Figures

- 1.1 British troops survey bombing damage in Berlin, 1945 12
- 1.2 Emperor Hirohito inspecting bombing damage in Tokyo, 1945 18
- 2.1 West German Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard, smoking a cigar and reading Prosperity for All, 1957 38
- 2.2 West German Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard inspecting a model of a nuclear power station at the Hannover Industrial Fair, 1957 39
- 2.3 Detroit banker Joseph Dodge and General Douglas MacArthur, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers (SCAP), meeting at Tokyo airport to discuss the Japanese budget, November 1949 49
- 2.4 Soichiro Honda, 1963 51
- 3.1 Volkswagen Beetle production line, 1952 65
- 3.2 The one-millionth Corolla produced by Toyota, 1970 73
- 4.1 The Goggomobil, 1956 83
- 5.1 Bosch refrigerator advertisement, 1955 104
- 5.2 Consumers in Tokyo shopping for white goods, c. 1956 105

Part IV Navigating Waves of Globalization, 1990 to the Present

- 10 Managing in Major Markets: Selling and Making
in the United States and China 203

- 11 Coping with the Close of the Cold War 230

- 12 The Shock of the New Century: Three Crises
(and a Near Miss) 254

Conclusion: Deutschland AG and Japan Inc. – Lessons
and Limits 273

Notes 285

Index 318

CHARTS AND FIGURES

Chart

- 5.1 Per capita GDP in Germany, Japan, the United Kingdom, and the United States, 1920–1980 page 97

Figures

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 1.1 | British troops survey bombing damage in Berlin, 1945 | 12 |
| 1.2 | Emperor Hirohito inspecting bombing damage in Tokyo, 1945 | 18 |
| 2.1 | West German Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard, smoking a cigar and reading Prosperity for All , 1957 | 38 |
| 2.2 | West German Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard inspecting a model of a nuclear power station at the Hannover Industrial Fair, 1957 | 39 |
| 2.3 | Detroit banker Joseph Dodge and General Douglas MacArthur, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers (SCAP), meeting at Tokyo airport to discuss the Japanese budget, November 1949 | 49 |
| 2.4 | Soichiro Honda, 1963 | 51 |
| 3.1 | Volkswagen Beetle production line, 1952 | 65 |
| 3.2 | The one-millionth Corolla produced by Toyota, 1970 | 73 |
| 4.1 | The Goggomobil, 1956 | 83 |
| 5.1 | Bosch refrigerator advertisement, 1955 | 104 |
| 5.2 | Consumers in Tokyo shopping for white goods, c. 1956 | 105 |

6.1	Volkswagen's legendary 'Think Small' advertisement, 1959	113
6.2	Sony transistor radio advertisement, 1960	115
6.3	Sony workers assembling transistor radios, 1961	133
7.1	Smog in the West German Ruhr district, 1985	140
7.2	Smog in Tokyo, 1977	141
8.1	German chemical industrialist Otto Ambros on trial at Nuremberg, August 1947	160
8.2	Allied legal delegates to the Tokyo War Crimes Trials, March 1946	161
8.3	Eberhard von Brauchitsch on his way to trial for his role in the 'Flick Affair', August 1985	170
8.4	Yoshio Kodama at the Lockheed Trial in Tokyo, June 1977	175
10.1	Billboard outside Honda plant in Marysville, Ohio, March 1983	209
10.2	Volkswagen Rabbit advertisement 1980	213
10.3	Konosuke Matsushita of Matsushita Electric (later Panasonic) departing for the People's Republic of China, October 1980	221
10.4	Ferdinand Piëch of Volkswagen AG and German Chancellor Gerhard Schröder at VW's Shanghai plant, November 1999	227
11.1	East German Trabant automobile arriving in West Berlin, November 1989	231
11.2	Robert Eaton and Jürgen Schrempp, co-CEOs of DaimlerChrysler, December 1998	247
11.3	Carlos Ghosn of Renault–Nissan, at Tokyo Motor Show, 1999	250