

Contents

1 Introduction — 1

Who Can Feel With Us? — 1

Questions, Arguments, and Significance — 5

Roadmap — 7

Sources and Methodology — 8

The Invention of Displaced Persons and the Creation of UNRRA — 11

Terms — 32

Historiographical Literature Review — 34

UNRRA – The Road Back to “Normality”?

2 UNRRA as a New Beginning in Humanitarian Aid? — 49

2.1 How Interwar Social Policies Shaped UNRRA’s Psychosocial Strategy — 53

2.2 From the Clinic to the International Stage: The Mental Hygiene Movement — 58

3 Planning the Road Home Prior to War’s End — 62

3.1 The Meaning of Relief, Rehabilitation, and Welfare — 62

3.2 Inter-Allied Psychological Study Group — 71

3.3 Theorizing the Road to “Normality” — 98

3.4 Conclusion — 141

4 Negotiating National Belonging — 145

4.1 The DP Operations Begin: The Year 1945 in DP Camps — 146

4.2 The International Children’s Center Kloster Indersdorf — 150

4.3 Conclusion — 178

JDC – Paving the Path Toward a New Homeland

5 The Evolution of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee in Postwar Europe — 189

5.1 The JDC: American Jewish Support for Their European Brethren — 190

5.2 Saving the Sherith Hapletah: The JDC in Jewish DP Camps — 194

6 Surveying Jewish Displaced Children — 201

- 6.1 JDC Health Departments — 201
- 6.2 Mental Hygiene and the Joint — 205
- 6.3 Dr. Paul Friedman's 1946 Survey in Europe — 218
- 6.4 Conclusion — 244

7 Measuring Adaptability — 251

- 7.1 Palestine Under British Mandatory Rule — 253
- 7.2 Inquiry into the Mental State of Cyprus DPs — 257
- 7.3 The Cyprus Mission — 262
- 7.4 Healing the DPs, Restoring Peace — 290
- 7.5 Conclusion — 293

8 Healing the Wounds of DPs, Healing the World? — 297

Epilogue — 304

Acknowledgements — 307

Abbreviations — 310

Glossary — 311

Bibliography — 312

- Books and Articles — 312
- Online Sources — 327
- Newspapers — 328

List of Sources — 329

- Archival Sources — 329
- Printed Sources — 331
- Newspapers — 334
- Internet sources — 334

Index — 336