

CONTENTS

1	Hope and Futurity: Emotions, Strategies, and Virtues in the Premodern World	1
	Oana-Maria Cojocaru and Ville Vuolanto
2	From Modern “Hope” to Ancient Elpis	25
	Esther Eidinow
3	Searching for Hope in Roman Antiquity: Changing Patterns of Discourses and Agency	49
	Ville Vuolanto
4	Is There Hope for the Barbarian? Imagining Outgroup Futurities in Ammianus Marcellinus and Eunapius of Sardis	67
	Antti Lampinen
5	Lost Hopes? Parental Hope and the Death of Children in Ancient Rome	93
	Sanna Joska
6	Looking Back for Hope: Patterns of Salvation and Positive Performances in the Third-Century Synagogue at Dura Europos	117
	Barbara Crostini

7	caelestia regna petisti : Seeking Hope in Late Antique Funerary Verse Inscriptions Kristin Harper	145
8	Family Crises and the Construction of Hope: The Case of Michael Psellos Oana-Maria Cojocaru	167
9	Earthly Ambitions and Otherworldly Hopes in Twelfth- Century Constantinople: Nicholas Kallikles' Funerary Epigrams for the Komnenian Elite Luisa Andriollo	191
10	Heretical Hope: Striving for Salvation and the Good Death in Medieval Languedoc Saku Pihko	215
11	Latter-Day Lazaruses: Hoping to Avoid Death in the Late Middle Ages Jyrki Nissi	237
12	Infirmity, Hope, and Lived Religion in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe Jenni Kuuliala	261
13	Hope, Nostalgia, and the Use of Emotions in Early Modern Medicine Sari Kivistö	285
14	Constructing and Performing Hope in the Premodern World Oana-Maria Cojocaru and Ville Vuolanto	307
	Index	317