

Garry L. Hagberg
Editor

Literature, Voice, Meaning

Philosophical Aspects

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1	Introduction: The Uses of Language, the Power of Voice, and the Determination of Meaning	1
	Garry L. Hagberg
Part I	Varieties of Meaning Within Interpretive Criticism	11
2	I. A. Richards and the Meaning of Criticism	13
	Daniel Braun
3	“That Which Is Its Own Evidence”: Oscar Wilde and the Platonic Dialogue	37
	Shyam Vijay Patel
4	Rethinking Dramatic Irony with George Eliot’s Silas Marner	59
	Lucas Thompson

Part II	Meaning Lost and Found	83
5	The Pursuit of Meaning in Beckett's Watt: A Success Story Shoshana Benjamin	85
6	Robert Frost's Dharma and Ours: On Teaching "Directive" K. Narayana Chandran	123
7	Plays, Words, and Meaning Carola Barbero	135
Part III	J. L. Austin, Stanley Cavell, and the Necessity of Community	159
8	Self-Affirmation and Uncooperative Communication in Harold Pinter's No Man's Land Ivan Nyusztay	161
9	Stanley Cavell Between Friends and Strangers CJ Higgins	185
10	Awakening Our Sleeping Selves: The Appalling Business of Amit Chaudhuri Paul Deb	197
Part IV	Distinctive Voices, Saying, and the Intricacies of the Spoken	217
11	Finding One's Voice: Talk, Knowledge, and Intimacy in Diderot's D'Alembert's Dream Rudolphus Teeuwen	219
12	The Kind of Thing One Would Say: Voice, Meaning, and Verbal Style in The Wings of the Dove Garry L. Hagberg	241

13	Poet of Joy: Nietzschean Motifs in Philip Larkin	277
	David Gelineau
Part V	Pictures and Powers of Literary Language	307
14	Saussure, Bergson, and the Future of Literary Theory	309
	David Lehner
15	Art and Information: A Few Unsystematic Suggestions	329
	William James Earle
16	Philosophy and the Force of Metaphor	341
	Nina Belmonte
	Index	359